

FREE Student Tickets to CCSO Concerts!

Tix4

What is it?

Tix4Music is an exciting new program that offers students, ages 12-18, and their chaperones free tickets to this season's Cape Cod Symphony Orchestra Classics and CapePOPS! concerts.

Who can participate?

All Cape Cod music educators – public and private – are invited to participate in this terrific program designed to enrich the musical experience of their students.

How many tickets are available?

There are 56 free tickets available for each of 16 performances throughout the season (excludes the Sunday performance of the CapePOPS! Holiday concert). Tickets are on a first-come, first-served basis.

A total musical experience!

So students can get the most out of the concert experience, they'll receive listening guides and age-appropriate program notes. The concert conductor – either Jung-Ho Pak or Royston Nash – will greet students and their chaperones at a special pre-concert talk presented before each classics concert.

The Tix4Music program is made possible by a contribution from an anonymous donor.
